

Do not take any steps that would weaken the FCC regulations prohibiting cross-ownership of media in the same city. The media is already in sufficiently concentrated hands to represent a clear and present danger to the democratic process. Continuing trends in this direction must be resisted strongly.

(I am a US citizen residing overseas.)